Dear General Cabell:

STAT We are planning to run another exercise similar to the one held at Camp David on the weekend of September 8-11 at which [redacted] of your organization participated. The next exercise will be held commencing after dinner on Friday, September 29, through late in the evening on Sunday, October 1. We expect to hold it at the Military Assistance Institute in Arlington Towers. We would like very much to have two members from your organization participate in this next exercise, and would appreciate it if you could suggest two persons for this purpose.

STAT We had a very interesting experience at Camp David and were very pleased and impressed with the participation by [redacted]. We hope, by our next exercise, to spread this type experience among a number of other people in important positions in the government. We will send further details to the participants whom you suggest.

Yours sincerely,

Henry S. Byrd
Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense
